

SPEAKER'S BIO

DARRELL CLARK

COMMISSIONER
FEDERAL MEDIATION AND CONCILIATION SERVICE

Commissioner Clark joined the Federal Mediation & Conciliation Service in 2005 and currently serves the Portland, Oregon area. He has over 30 years of collective bargaining experience and is part of a team that provides services and training related to Collective Bargaining, Grievance Mediation, and other forms of Alternative Dispute Resolution for private, public (Idaho) and federal sectors throughout the states of Oregon, Idaho and an area of Washington.

Prior to joining FMCS, Commissioner Clark spent years as an advocate with the International Union of Operating Engineers. He has a unique understanding of the bargaining process and ratification complications.

Commissioner Clark has broad experiences and studies in many industries related to successful collective bargaining, facilitation, disputes and training.